ABOUT MISSOURI STATE PARKS

The State Parks described in this booklet are the results of planning and development over a number of years.

Endowed by nature with ideal sites that range from the Green Hills in the north to the Ozarks in the south. Missouri State Parks are located to take advantage of nature's finest works and for easy access from any location in the State. Before any of the areas were accepted for a State Park, they had to meet one of the following criteria. They had to have statewide significance, possess outstanding qualities of landscape, special public recreational values, or historical significance of statewide or national concern.

All these new areas in various stages of development definitely meet the above requirements. They are Rock Bridge State Park in Boone County, Elephant Rocks State Park in Iron County, the Hunter-Dawson Home in New Madrid, Towosahgy in Mississippi County, Bollinger Mill in Cape Girardeau County, and Stockton State Park on the new Stockton Lake in Cedar County.

Development of these new parks is in no way retarding the many improvements being made in the older ones now in operation. Campgrounds are being enlarged, water and sewage system updated, cabins remodeled, roads constructed, and numerous other projects that will add to the park visitor's pleasure and enjoyment.

Keep this book as a guide for handy reference for all of your visits to Missouri State Parks.

PICNIC FACILITIES ARE AVAILABLE IN ALL STATE PARKS

ARROW ROCK STATE PARK is located in Saline County, 13 miles north of Interstate 70 on State Highway 41, 15 miles east of Marshall. This park offers the visitor a wide variety of recreation. Besides the excellent historic town, ideal camping and picnicking facilities are available on the high limestone bluffs overlooking the fertile green valleys of the mighty Missouri River. 2

DR. EDMUND A. BABLER MEMORIAL STATE PARK is located 20 miles west of St. Louis on State Highway 109 off St. Louis County CC. This 2,400-acre tract in St. Louis County was a gift to the State from Jacob J. Babler and Henry J. Babler of St. Louis as a memorial to their brother, Dr. Edmund A. Babler, a well-known Missouri physician and surgeon. It was laid out and developed under the supervision of many of America's best park and forestry authorities and is intended as a great playground for the St. Louis area. A new swimming pool has been added to the facilities which are for day use only, such as picnicking and nature hikes conducted by a naturalist in June, July, and August. There is a riding stable and 13 miles of bridle trails in the park.

71,000,000 gallons. As the spring branch wanders through the picturesque valley to the Niangua River, the clear, cool water furnishes excellent rainbow trout fishing. The stream is stocked daily from the well-operated hatchery within the park. Bennett Spring State Park, consisting of 756 acres, is located in Laclede and Dallas Counties, 12 miles west of Lebanon on State Highway 64. A recently completed Nature Interpretive Center is open all year. The exhibits interpret the forests and wildlife that are found in the hills surrounding the park. The campgrounds have been enlarged and two comfort stations, complete with showers, automatic clothes washers and dryers, are available. Also, a travel trailer park with connections for water, electricity and disposal is provided along with a trailer dumping station. Other facilities available are: dining lodge, cabins, store, picnic grounds, nature museum and swimming pool. The daily sleeping cabin rates start at $6.50 for one double bed. Salt was made at Boonslick Spring as early as 1805 by Daniel M. Boone and Nathan Boone, the two sons of Daniel Boone. The salt was boated down the Missouri River to settlements and St. Louis. Nature trails and picnicking facilities are available.

CIVIL WAR BATTLE OF LEXINGTON STATE PARK. Here is the site of the Battle of Lexington, more popularly known as the "Battle of the Hemp Bales," fought in and around the City of Lexington on September 18, 19 and 20, 1861, between Major General Sterling Price of the Missouri State Guard and Colonel James A. Mulligan, Commander of Federal troops. The engagement ended in a victory for the South. Over a hundred years' weather has not erased the outlines of the trenches. Neither has the plow turned this sod. The park is located in Lexington from U. S. Highway 24 in Lafayette County. The historic Anderson House is in this park.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL STATE PARK is located in Lafayette County, 1 mile north of Higginsville on State Highways 20 and 13. The park contains four organized group camps, Sherwood Forest, Derricotte, Cuivre and Frenchmans Bluff, which are heavily used by public non-profit organizations. The public use area is equipped for picnicking and camping. Lake Lincoln consisting of 80 surface acres of water provides bass, bluegill, and channel cat fishing. ELEPHANT ROCKS STATE PARK consists of 125 acres and is located on Highway 21 at the north-east edge of Graniteville in Iron County. This area is now under development, but open to the public for day use only. The park is unique due to the curious geology from which the name is derived. It has been estimated that the largest so called Elephant Rock, which is 27 feet tall, 35 feet long, and 17 feet wide, weighs about 680 tons. Geologists estimate its age to be approximately 1.2 billion years. It should be noted that the oldest granite quarry in Missouri was open in 1869 near the Elephant Rocks and furnished stone for the piers for Eads Bridge and cobbles for St. Louis streets.

Note the resemblance of elephants of the two large boulders.

FORT ZUMWALT STATE PARK, containing 48 acres, is located in St. Charles County, 1 mile west of O'Fallon on State Highway 175 from Interstate 70. Daughters of 1812 erected a monument at the entrance of the park to commemorate the scene of the first battle of the War of 1812 in Missouri. Camping and picnicking facilities are available. An enclosed shelter is now available by reservations only. This park is closed at 10 p.m. daily. Electric hookups are available for tent or trailer camping.

Camp grounds
in Graham Cave.

GRAHAM CAVE STATE PARK is located in Montgomery County, 2 miles west of Danville on County TT from Interstate 70. The selection of the name of this park was due to the presence of a large sandstone cave named for an early settler, Robert Graham. The preliminary excavations conducted by the Missouri Archaeological Society and the University of Missouri were completed in 1954. Indian occupation of the cave has been placed at 7850 B.C., plus or minus 500, or approximately 10,000 years. This new park has modern rest rooms with showers and a trailer dumping station in the large campground.

Highway 80, then 2 miles south on Mississippi County AA, 3 miles south on Mississippi County FF, then east one mile on gravel, and south one mile on gravel. This park, consisting of 64 acres, is the site of an old Indian village of the Mississippian Culture, and the name Towosahgy is a more recent Osage Indian word meaning Old Town. A full time archaeologist is stationed at the Park and, with the weather permitting, conducts excavations of the site particularly during the summer months. Material retrieved from the site will be used eventually in the restoration of the Mississippian village to include the temple mounds, Indian houses, and plaza area. Visitors may walk over the site, being careful not to disturb the deposits, and observe the excavations in progress.

Day-use areas at Trail of Tears.

TRAIL OF TEARS STATE PARK is located in Cape Girardeau County, 10 miles north of Cape Girardeau on State Highway 177 from County V, and 7 miles southeast off of State Highway 61 at Fruitland on County J, to State Highway 177. This park, consisting of 3,268 acres, was a gift to the State of Missouri by the residents of Cape Girardeau County, the first by any political subdivision. The park contains a portion of the route known as "The Trail of Tears" used by the Cherokee Indians in their forced march from Tennessee to Oklahoma. Among the many who died was Princess Otahki, whose grave is now marked with a memorial monument. A dense and healthy stand of trees cover the area, which contains many fine specimens of American beech, tulip, winged elm, Spanish Oak and dogwood. Facilities available are: picnicking; nature trails; a campground complete with modern comfort station, hot and cold showers, automatic clothes washer and dryer; trailer dumping station; and a travel trailer park with connections for water, electricity and disposal. Modern rest rooms have been provided for the picnic area.

VAN METER STATE PARK, consisting of 722 acres, is located in Saline County, 12 miles northwest of Marshall on State Highway 122 from State Highway 41. This park offers excellent facilities for picnicking and camping, and a playground for kiddies is conveniently located in the main picnic area. The park is made distinctive by a thick growth of walnut trees and other flora. Indian remains date from early man cultures (10,000 B.C.) to the Historic Archaeologists at work in Van Meter.

Missouri Indians. Archaic Indian cultures are in evidence up to Early Woodland Cultures. The Middle Woodland Culture (Hopewell) built the "Old Fort", the only known earthworks of this kind west of the Mississippi. The Missouri Indians, after whom the State is named, lived in the area from early 1600 into the historic era and was at one time the most concentrated Indian occupation in the United States. The site is being used for the University of Missouri's "Summer Field Session in Archaeological Research." A new road has been constructed to Lake Wooldridge to accommodate the picnickers and fishermen. The lake has been stocked with bass, bluegill and channel cat.

The swimming beach at Wakonda.

Picnic area at Wakonda.

WAKONDA STATE PARK, located 3 miles south of LaGrange on U. S. Highway 61 in Lewis County, consists of 257 acres of land, 75 acres of which are in lakes. These lakes are well stocked with black bass, channel cat, and bluegill. Swimming, camping, and picnicking facilities are available in this new park. Modern rest rooms with showers are now available in the campground, and modern rest rooms are in the picnic area. Also available is a trailer dumping station. A new bathhouse and concession building has been constructed to accommodate the swimmers. Lifeguards will be on duty at all times when the beach is open.

36

WALLACE STATE PARK, consisting of 301 acres, is located 6 miles south of Cameron on State Highway 121 in Clinton County. This park is an excellent example of how a regional recreation area can well serve a community. The enclosed shelter, as well as open shelters, is very popular and is almost in constant use. This well-kept area also furnishes ideal picnicking facilities, excellent equipped playgrounds for the youngsters, fishing in a small lake, camping, an area set aside for boy and girl scouts' overnights, and nature trails have been laid out through the rough parts of the park for hikers and nature students. For campers, new modern rest rooms with showers and coin-operated washer and dryer have been added. Also available is a trailer dumping station.

The new Swimming Pool at Washington.

Indian Petroglyphs at Washington.

37

WASHINGTON STATE PARK, consisting of 1,101 acres, is located 14 miles northeast of Potosi on State Highway 21 in Washington County. Although it is not one of the state's larger parks, it is favored by many for its secluded setting, its excellent picnicking and camping sites, and its fine fishing in Big River. A new modern swimming pool has been built for those who prefer to swim. In addition, this park contains a concentration of hundreds of petroglyphs (prehistoric carvings in stone). Thunderbirds and other symbolic figures are interpreted for the public. A kiddies' playground and a parking lot are in front of the dining lodge. A baseball diamond and the picnic area are to the east along the river. To the west, foot trails lead along the river to a cave and to the bluffs overlooking the river. Also, there are cabins, a shelter house, campgrounds, and a nature museum. In the new camping area, a modern rest room building with showers has been constructed. The daily housekeeping cabin rates are $7.00 for one double bed and $11.00 for two double beds.

38

WATKINS MILL STATE PARK is located in Clay County, 6½ miles north of Excelsior Springs on U. S. Highway 69 and 1½ miles west on County MM. At present the park has only picnicking and day-use facilities. Information on other features of the park will be found in the Historic Section of this book.

Nature provides the classrooms for the Park Naturalist.

THE STATE PARK NATURALIST PROGRAM

Park visitors are invited to participate in the Naturalist Programs offered in Babler, Bennett Spring, Lake Ozark, Meramec, Montauk, Roaring River, Table Rock, and Thousand Hills State Parks. These programs are offered in these parks during June, July, and August, except at Bennett Spring, where the program is offered year-round.

The purpose of the Naturalist Program is to interpret to the park visitor the story of their natural surroundings through direct experience. Through this effort it is hoped that the park visitor will acquire a greater understanding and appreciation of the various phases of natural history. He should also acquire an increased appreciation of its beauty, complexity, and a knowledge of man's dependence upon natural resources, and a keener sense of responsibility for their conservation.

Activities included in this program, which are conducted by seasonal naturalist, are guided nature hikes, lectures on nature, and evening programs where interesting and enjoyable motion pictures are presented.

PRESENT AND FUTURE RECREATION NEEDS ARE BEING MET

Because of the great demand for outdoor recreation, the Missouri State Park Board is continually adding new State Parks and Historic Areas to the system and at the same time, improving the old. Even the casual visitor to our State Parks can easily recognize the expanding facilities being added everywhere, and though he may not know how many new parks have opened, he is certainly aware of the increasing number of visitors every year.

The Organized Group Camp Program plays an important role in the Missouri State Park Board's overall effort to provide a variety of recreational facilities and opportunities for the public.

Today the camp experience has come to be regarded as an important aspect of well-rounded children. Besides being a stimulating recreational experience, it also is a contributing factor in the social, intellectual, spiritual, and physical development of the camper.

Each year approximately 180 non-profit organizations lease the 15 group facilities which include dining lodges or kitchens, cabins or barracks, and rest room and shower facilities. Many of the camps also have recreation halls, craft houses, unit lodges, outdoor kitchens, swimming areas, paved play courts, amphitheaters and other recreational facilities.

The Anderson House was built in 1853.

The master bedroom in the Anderson House.

THE ANDERSON HOUSE which is in the Civil War Battle of Lexington State Park, is an excellent relic of a tragic event in the Nation's history. The Battle of Lexington, popularly known as "The Battle of the Hemp Bales", was fought on this site. During and after the Battle of Lexington, the Anderson House served as a field hospital in which both Confederate and Federal troops were treated. Blood stained floors bear witness to the injured and dead. The two story brick mansion was built by Colonel Oliver Anderson in 1853. Anderson moved to Lexington, Missouri from Lexington, Kentucky in 1851 and became involved in the hemp rope industry. The interior woodwork is beautiful walnut. The scars of battle are still visible on the inside and outside walls of the house.

The Santa Fe Trail started in historic Arrow Rock.

HISTORIC ARROW ROCK is an early settlement in Missouri filled with historic atmosphere. Here the Santa Fe Trail crossed the Missouri River in 1821 and began its long trek to the southwest. Arrow Rock is the home of three early governors of the State, M. M. Marmaduke, John S. Marmaduke, and Claiborne F. Jackson. Arrow Rock was also the home of Dr. John Sappington of medical fame and George Caleb Bingham, the frontier artist.

40

- 40 ARROW ROCK TAVERN, built by Judge Joseph Huston in 1834 in the federal style of architecture, still offers the fine food for today's traveler. The air conditioned dining area provides comfort in the surroundings of a historic house museum. Museum items of historical significance relating to the Santa Fe Trail, Arrow Rock and Missouri in general are displayed in their proper settings. Period furnishings, including several items of the family of the famous "fever doctor," Dr. John Sappington, are exhibited.

- 40 THE GEORGE CALEB BINGHAM HOUSE is furnished with primitive Missouri original furnishings. Bingham, one of Missouri's most famous artists, owned the home from 1837 to 1845. Each room of the three room home is furnished as a period room to appear much as it probably did during Bingham's occupancy. Restored by the Missouri State Park Board in 1965, the home was designated a National Historic Landmark in 1968.

Missouri's most famous artist owned this house.

- 40 OLD SALINE COUNTY COURT HOUSE, a two room frame building, is the most recent addition to Arrow Rock State Park. The structure which served as a Court House in 1839-1840 was later converted to a residence. Restored in 1960 by the Friends of Arrow Rock, Inc., the structure was donated to the Missouri State Park Board in 1968. Primitive furnishings and walnut woodwork make this site popular among visitors to Arrow Rock.

- 40 THE DR. MATTHEW WALTON HALL HOUSE is lavishly restored to the period of 1830-1850. Dr. Hall, an early Arrow Rock physician about whom little is known, after building the house and occupying it for a short while, moved his family into the nearby rural environment for the protection of his children against the evils of city life. The building, consisting of four rooms, was built in the federal style of architecture. Two rooms have been furnished by the Daughters of the American Revolution while the remaining rooms provide facilities for meetings of the D.A.R. chapters.

THE OLD SEMINARY was originally constructed as living quarters for students who attended a boarding school in Arrow Rock during the 1830's. Constructed of logs and covered with weather-boarding the two story structure, built in the federal style of architecture, has one stone and one brick chimney. The building presently serves as a private residence for the Park Superintendent.

Boyhood Home of General John J. Pershing in Laclede.

Bronze statue of the general in the yard of his boyhood Home

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING BOYHOOD HOME. The boyhood home of the only other man besides George Washington to hold the title of General of the Armies is located 1 mile north of U.S. Highway 36 on State Highway 5 in Laclede, Missouri. The house is one of the few examples of Rural Gothic Architecture west of the Mississippi. Pershing lived here from age 6 (1866) until he left home for college in 1882. He became Commander-in-Chief of the victorious U.S. Expeditionary Forces at the beginning of World War I. A museum in one room of the eleven-room house interprets "Black Jack's" life. The remaining rooms are furnished of the period of Pershing's occupancy.

Governor Daniel Dunklin's grave in Herculeaneum.

GOVENOR DANIEL DUNKLIN'S GRAVE is located on Dunklin Drive in Herculeaneum overlooking the mighty Mississippi. The Missouri State Park Board has repaired and restored the small cemetery containing one acre and is giving perpetual care to the area. Daniel Dunklin was the fifth governor of Missouri 1832-1836. He is the father of Missouri's modern public school system.

The Missouri State Park Board has placed bronze markers on fourteen governor's graves whose gravestones did not carry the legend that they once served as Governor of Missouri.

44

PRESIDENT HARRY S. TRUMAN BIRTH-PLACE HOME. On May 8, 1884, Harry S. Truman, the only Missourian ever to serve as President, was born in this small house in Lamar, Missouri, which is in southwest Missouri on U.S. Highway 71. The house was purchased by the United Automobile Workers and donated to the State of Missouri as a monument to the 32nd President of the United States. Truman served as President from 1945-1953. Known for his straight forward Missouri manner, President Truman served this nation and the world on the threshold of the Atomic Age.

MARK TWAIN BIRTH-PLACE MEMORIAL SHRINE, located in Mark Twain State Park, near Perry and Paris, on State Highway 107, is a modernistic building of steel, concrete and Missouri stone. It strikes a pleasing contrast to the surrounding countryside. Large, glass windows cast the glow of Samuel Clemens' (Mark Twain's) beloved outdoors over the enshrined, two-room house in which he was born on November 30, 1835. The shrine has a museum, containing many of Clemens' personal belongings, interpreting his American experiences and literary work. On display is a large, bronze bust and several original portraits. (Also on display is the manuscript used for the first printing of "Tom Sawyer"). Missouri's most famous literary son, Mark Twain, became the world's best loved author and humorist, cheering and comforting a tired world.

COVERED BRIDGES

The following three covered, wooden bridges have been acquired by the Missouri State Park Board and will be maintained as Historic Sites:

LINN COUNTY COVERED BRIDGE is located 3 miles west of Laclede on U. S. Highway 36 and 1 mile north, then east on a gravel road. The bridge was built in 1868. Vehicular traffic is prohibited as the road terminates before reaching the bridge, but visitors are invited to inspect the bridge and its construction.

SANDY CREEK COVERED BRIDGE is located 5 miles north of Hillsboro on U. S. Highway 21 and 500 feet east on Goldman Road on the old Lemay Ferry Road. Constructed of white pine the bridge is approximately 76 feet in length. The bridge is open to vehicular traffic.

Restored Union Covered Bridge is located in Monroe County.

48

UNION COVERED BRIDGE is located 5 miles west of Paris on U. S. Highway 24 then three miles south on Monroe County route C, and ¼ mile west on gravel. Built in 1870, it is the remaining survivor of similar bridges constructed by J. C. Elliotte within Monroe County. The bridge is closed to vehicular traffic, but open for visitors to inspect the construction techniques used.

49

WITHIN VAN METER STATE PARK is situated the Lyman Center for Archaeological Research consisting of the Hamilton Field School and a small interpretative center. Self explanatory exhibits provide answers to most visitor questions, but a student archaeologist is on duty during the summer months. The Missouri Indians, after whom the State is named, lived on the site from ca. 1600 into the historic era and was at one time the most concentrated Indian occupation in the United States. The site is being used for the University of Missouri's "Summer Field Session in Archaeological Research." Visitors are welcome at the "dig" as well as the museum.

50

WATKINS WOOLEN MILL is located in Clay County,  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles north of Excelsior Springs on U. S. Highway 69 and  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles west on Clay County MM. The primary attraction in this park is the woolen mill built and equipped by Waltus L. Watkins in 1860. The original machinery and steam engine power plant remain and today it is an excellent example of an industrial plant of the mid-1800's. The mill is located on the grounds of the old Watkins plantation, "Bethany", and several other features—such as the Watkins home, smoke house and family cemetery—add interest to a visit to this early Missouri plantation. To preserve the historic atmosphere, no automobiles are allowed in the Historic Area of the park and access to the buildings is by way of pleasant footpaths through the grounds. As yet, other than picnicking, no recreation facilities have been developed in this park. Guided tours through the old mill are available to the public.

The Watkins Woolen Mill was built in 1860.
